Panelists will answer your questions on credit and debt, investing, saving and budgeting.
- 1:15 p.m. Door Prizes

Manisha Thakor is on a mission to teach American women how to "own your finances and own your life." She is absolutely passionate about personal finance for women. Through her books, articles, TV and radio appearances, speeches, and blog – this female personal finance expert inspires women to take charge of their money. Manisha's financial literacy advocacy work has been featured in national publications such as: The New York Times, BusinessWeek, US News & World Report, Glamour, Real Simple, and Women's Day. Manisha's national TV appearances on the subject of women and financial independence include, CNN's Your Bottom Line, CNBC's Power Lunch, NBC Nightly News, ABC's America This Morning and Fox Business Network. Manisha is also a regular personal finance blogger on The Huffington Post, a regular contributor to the nationally syndicated NPR show "51% – The Women's Perspective," and a monthly columnist for Military.com. When it comes to personal finance, budgeting is her favorite topic.

Local financial institutions will have informational booths about goods and services that are available in our community to assist women in such areas as insurance, investments and money management.

Participants will be able to register for door prizes that will be presented at 1:15 p.m.
